Staffing News: IM/Mrs Morris's Class

Dear Parents/Carers,

It is with the greatest pleasure that I am writing to you to share the very happy news that your child's class teacher, Fran Morris, is pregnant. I'm sure you will all join me in congratulating Fran and her husband, Chris, as we share this very special news and we all wish Fran a very happy and healthy pregnancy.

As Fran is expecting her baby to be born early in the Spring term, we are expecting that she will continue with her current class up until Christmas. However, should this change for any reason, we will of course be in touch with you to share any necessary further information.

Once staffing arrangements are confirmed for after Christmas, we will arrange opportunities for meeting the class and handover between staff members. More information will follow closer to the time.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me (n.jones@cliftongreenprimary.co.uk).

Many thanks for your ongoing support,

Nicola Jones
